Course Summary

Course : CMRJ512 Title : Police Administration

Length of Course : 8

Prerequisites : N/A Credit Hours : 3

Description

Course Description: The student will evaluate policies and procedures that are utilized in all phases of police administration. These include judicial decisions, which impact the legal status of the operation of police agencies. Additionally, administrative issues inherent in both large and small police organizations are assessed including: the history and context of police administration, police organizational tasks, leadership in the police organization, the role of the police manager, and the role of citizen oversight. Oversight committees addressing police accountability for community enforcement services are analyzed.

Course Scope:

This course will discuss the social and legal problems involved with sexual exploitation of children. Major issues that will be examined in this course will be child pornography, prostitution, pedophiles, law enforcement sexual offender databases, and victimization. The course focuses on all realms of the problem of sexual exploitation of children, including the offender typologies, the victims, and the criminal justice system's past and current responses to these crimes.

Objectives

After successfully completing this course, you will be able to demonstrate and explain the following seven primary learning objectives:

CO1: Assess the operational role of managers in law enforcement agencies.

CO2: Develop the legal and operational dimensions of decisions regarding employee recruitment, hiring, training, and supervision.

CO3: Assess the need to establish opportunities for individual officers to pursue professional growth and development, and the managerial role in staffing, recruitment, and promotional models.

CO4: Formulate the use of historical, procedural, operational, and other information and procedures to improve productivity of individual officers and the department as a whole.

CO5: Evaluate the use, development, and training of citizen oversight committees on police accountability, including potential pitfalls for implementation.
